

I strongly urge you not to weaken Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. This law works very well and to alter it would go against the wishes of the citizens of Indiana who enacted the law for their privacy.